WORKING TOGETHER TO REHAB THREE HOMES
IN THE BUCKEYE NEIGHBORHOOD THIS SUMMER!

OUR CHURCH PROVIDES:
1/12 THE FUNDS
1/12 THE LABOR
1/12 THE PRAYERS

Greater Cleveland Habitat for Humanity believes in a world where everyone has a decent place to live. They work to end substandard housing by renovating simple, decent, affordable houses for lower income families. This summer, Brecksville United Methodist Church will help renovate 3 homes. We need 8 volunteers to work on site on each of three days: July 28, July 30, and August 4. Call the office to sign up! If you can’t work on site, you can help by donating towards our goal of $4,000, by providing lunch to our work team, and by praying for the work of the project and the people we’ll be serving. Learn more about the project at the display in the Parlor. Thank you!

Student Recital
On Saturday, April 9, at 7:30 pm, come hear the best and the brightest of our young musicians at BUMC. This recital will feature solos and ensembles by a variety of vocalists and instrumentalists, and this year’s Music/Worship scholarship winners will also be announced. Following intermission, we will be treated to a 30-minute set by the BBHHS Jazz Ensemble. Don’t miss this awesome night of music!

Brecksville Broadview Heights Community Chorus Spring Concert
This year the Community Chorus will give their annual spring concert across the street at Brecksville United Church of Christ. Join them on Sunday, April 10, at 4:00 pm for some of the very best of traditional American music. Under the direction of Joy Parker, the program offers a little something for everyone! Come early. Parking and seating will fill up fast!

Youth Chorus Festival Concerts: Give Us Hope!
The Brecksville Broadview Heights Youth Choruses are teaming up with the Hudson Community Children’s Chorus and Youth Chorus to present a pair of festival concerts that you won’t want to miss! You have two opportunities to catch a phenomenal program featuring a program of high-energy multi-cultural music and inspirational messages around themes of vision and hope. A free-will offering will be collected at both programs, and all money raised will go to provide musical opportunities for students in impoverished areas, both in the United States and abroad.

- Sunday, April 24 at 4:00 pm – Brecksville United Methodist Church
- Sunday, April 30 at 5:00 pm – Christ Church Episcopal, Hudson
A couple had two little boys, ages eight and ten, who were excessively mischievous. The two were always getting into trouble and their parents could be assured that if any mischief occurred in their small town, their two young sons were in some way involved. The parents were at wits end as to what to do about their sons’ behavior.

The mother had heard that a clergyman in town had been successful disciplining children in the past, so she asked her husband if he thought they should send the boys to speak with the clergyman. The husband said, “We might as well. We need to do something before I really lose my temper.” The clergyman agreed to speak with the boys, but asked to speak with them individually.

The eight year old went to meet with him first. The clergyman sat the boy down and asked him sternly, “Where is God?”

The boy made no response, so the clergyman repeated the question in an even stern tone, “Where is God?”

Again, the boy made no attempt to answer. So the clergyman raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boy’s direction, “WHERE IS GOD?”

At that, the boy bolted from the room and ran straight home, slamming himself in the closet.

His older brother followed him into the closet and said, “What happened?”

The younger brother replied, “We are in BIG trouble this time. God is missing and they think we did it.”

Spring is busting out all over. Signs of new life surround us, as flowers push their way up through now unfrozen ground. Birds are singing, nesting, getting ready to nurse new birdies. And a tomb stands empty, another certain sign of new life. The occupant is no longer there. He lives, missing from the tomb, moving on ahead.

As I get older, it is increasingly interesting to me that God is a God of empty spaces. From still small voices, to the empty space beneath the stretching wings atop the Ark of the Covenant, to the empty space of a once occupied place of death, God is understood to occupy these places. As visible signs of new life, from flowers and buds, to birds and their young, make their way into our sight, may we also dare to look at the empty space of that tomb.

And that peek isn’t just into Jesus’ old resting place, but you can be guaranteed that your own tomb will be just as empty someday. New life walks the roads of creation. Anybody got an “Alleluia” deep inside for that? Happy Spring!

Faith & Action: Two Sides, Same Coin

Before Lent, many of you participated in a course that examined the E-Word (Evangelism) and what that scary term might actually mean for us in the 21st century. One of the things we uncovered was the importance of being able to tell our stories about why Jesus is important to us and why our faith in God mobilizes us to be in ministry to others. Kendall Lancaster facilitated a wonderful class during Lent that helped us learn to tell our own faith stories in a meaningful way. Most recently, guest clinician Richard Bruxvoort Colligan invited Lenten retreat participants to explore the spiritual themes held within the Psalms: joy & thriving, desolation & lament, and wonder at the new and exciting things for which God may be making a way. Now, we hope to weave these themes together and take a look at the powerful relationship between our own growth and development as people of faith and the work that we are called to do in the community and in the world.

This class will be an awesome next step for those who have participated in these classes and retreats, but it will also be accessible and open to anyone, even if this is your first adult education experience of the year! The class will combine spiritual exercises, times for personal reflection, storytelling, and dreaming about the future God has for us as individuals and as a church. Some Sundays will include guest speakers and information about relevant topics affecting our community; other Sundays will be devoted to scripture and inward reflection.

As United Methodists, we are called “to make and mature disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.” What are we doing to grow and mature as disciples? How does that empower and embolden us to change the world? Come and be a part of the conversation!

Travel Through the Holy Land

The journey through the Holy Land continues! Drop in as we delve into stories from the Holy Land, examining the geography, what happened where, and just how we feel the impact of these events in our present day life of faith. Come experience the stories of the bible in their historical context, and join the discussion about why they still matter.

Save the date for VBS! Surf Shack is for kids pre-school through fifth grade. Camp Serve is for sixth through ninth graders. Learn more about both at www.brecksvilleumc.com/vbs
Earth Day and Every Day... do what you can!

Make a commitment to be the very best steward of God’s creation that you possibly can. Don’t add to the landfill, do a little extra footwork and keep your castoffs out of the waste stream.

In honor of Earth Day, April 22, here’s an A-Z of local recycling resources, compiled by our Director of Christian Education, Jenny Gee!

Batteries: We have begun a recycling program here at BUMC. Place your worn out batteries in the proper receptacle found in the first floor coatroom collection site. Please separate single use batteries from rechargeable batteries and do not drop off any batteries that have begun to leak acid.

Bikes!! Brecksville UMC’s Bike Round-up is about to begin its second year and has grown quite strong! Keep those bikes coming! Drop them off in the first floor coat room, and our bike mechanic team will refurbish them for people in need. Questions? Contact Jenny Gee, 440-526-8938 ext. 230 or education@brecksvilleumc.com.

Compact florescent bulbs (CFLs): These bulbs contain mercury, and while the amount in one bulb may be small, the cumulative effect on soil and water is hazardous. Take your burned out CFLs to Lowes, TrueValue or Home Depot where they collect and recycle the bulbs.

Electronics: Drop off at the most convenient Best Buy location. Items are taken for free, except televisions for which there is a $25 charge. If you live in Brecksville, TVs can be dropped off at the community recycle event held on Saturdays from 8 am to noon at the service center. Check out all the items Best Buy will take here: http://tinyurl.com/7rc9csh

Miscellaneous items: You can also drop off political yard signs, small appliances, holiday lights and hair care, skin care and cosmetic packaging at Solid Waste District headquarters, 4750 East 131 Street in Garfield Heights. Marked collection bins are in the lobby. Hours are Monday-Friday from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. All Cuyahoga County residents are invited to take advantage of this recycling program. For more details, contact the district: 216-443-3749.

Paper: Bring your unwanted paper (newspaper, books, wrapping paper, anything paper) to our bins in the church parking lot. We earn money for our hunger fund for every ton of paper we recycle.

Styrofoam: The Solid Waste District accepts white formed blocks of Styrofoam (no peanuts, foam sheeting, colored foam or food trays) at their facility at 4750 East 131 Street in Garfield Heights. A marked collection bin is located in the lobby; hours are Monday-Friday from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Take packing peanuts to the UPS Store or Kinkos. They will happily accept them to reuse.

Tires: When you buy new tires, dispose of your old tires through your tire retailer at the time of purchase. There is a small fee charged for tire disposal, which is a tax used for transporting and disposing of tires through state licensed facilities. If you already have tires at home, contact one of the following three stores who provide tire disposal for non-customers: Conrad’s Tire Express, Firestone Auto Care, and National Tire and Battery.

Tools & (usable) Building Materials: The Greater Cleveland Habitat for Humanity ReStore accepts donations of tools (hand, power, and yard) appliances (10 years old or newer), windows/doors, cabinets, fixtures, sinks, furniture, lumber (6 ft. or longer) and more. All items must be in good, usable condition; they are cleaned and processed for sale to the general public. The Habitat ReStore has two locations: 2110 West 110th Street in Cleveland and 4601 Northfield Road in North Randall. Call (216) 429-3631 or visit [www.gchfh.org/ Restore](http://www.gchfh.org/ Restore)

Yard Waste: Local registered compost facilities that accept yard waste include Boyas Excavating (216) 524-3620; Kurtz Brothers (216) 986-7031 and Tree Master Supply (216) 241-6744.
Baptism is the beginning of a lifelong journey of faith. It makes no difference whether you were baptized as an adult or as a child; we all start on that journey at baptism.

We celebrated a baptism in March and have two scheduled for April. These three baby boys are beginning their journey in the nurturing community of our church, where they will learn what God’s love means. Help us to welcome:

Joshua Daniel Biladeau, (March 13) son of Allen and Melissa, grandson of Janet and Dan Biggs.

Austin Karn, (April 10) son of Anthony and Christine. (His brother Anthony was baptized here in 2013.)

Gabriel Mark Vastartis, (April 17) son of Alex and Jessica, and grandson of Catherine and Mark Vastartis.

As people of faith, we find God’s presence in those who have been blessings to us. At our weekly Staff Meetings this month, we lifted up the following people in prayer, thanking God for them and the way they touch the lives of others. People like Erin Gee, who plays the guitar for us every Sunday in worship; Shelly Meek, Dave Brown, Matt Auble, Craig Kotnik and Becky Paroda, who recently completed an audit of the church finances; Sue Hastings and Craig Czarnota, who accompanied our confirmands on their recent visit to Friends Church; and Joan Olszko who created the beautiful Habitat for Humanity display in the Parlor. Talk about using God’s gifts to his glory!
God has filled our world with amazing beauty and incredible creatures—get outside and appreciate the wonders that surround us. Meet us in the church lot at 4 pm sharp or catch up with us at our starting location for that day.

- April 4 at 4:00 hike the towpath to hopefully see the bald eagle nest and then have fun with a nature scavenger hunt along the trail. (Starting location: Station Road parking lot in CVNP).

- April 18 at 4:00 hike the area around Deer Lick Cave and the vernal pool, which should be holding lots of frog eggs at that time. (Starting location: Deer Lick Cave parking area on Valley Parkway in Brecksville Reservation of the Cleveland Metroparks)

- May 2 at 4:00 hike the yellow trail behind Brecksville Nature Center to see the variety of spring wildflowers that are popping up out of the newly warmed ground. Each one has its name and story… can you figure out which is which? (Starting location: Brecksville Nature Center parking lot)

- May 16 at 4:00 take a high adventure creek hike to see some awesome rock formations. Wear sensible, sturdy shoes and be prepared for steep, muddy slopes and wet feet. (Starting location: Chippewa Creek ford field in the Brecksville Reservation of Cleveland Metroparks)

- June 3 at 8:00 join your friends for a fun Friday night hike. Listen for owls and coyotes and search for bats. There will essentially be no moonlight tonight, so it is a great time to view the stars and constellations. (Meeting location TBD)

The GetOutDoors Club is for anyone—third grade and up—who loves to be outside appreciating God’s beautiful creation. Bring a friend and a camera and a quest for adventure. Plan to either meet at the starting location a little after 4 pm or promptly at 4:00 if you need a ride from the church parking lot. We will return by 5:30.

POTLUCK

SATURDAY, APRIL 23

6 PM IN FELLOWSHIP HALL

Come one, come all, for a night of fun and friends! Bring a dish or dessert to share, and leave the rest to us.

HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!

Pledge Campaign and 2016 Budget

We have good news to Celebrate in 2016! With everyone’s gracious support, our Church Family made 153 pledges for $445,402! That is one of the highest pledge amount totals in recent memory, and a strong $30,445 increase over 2015!

This wonderful support enabled the Administrative Board to approve a balanced budget for 2016, without making emergency transfers from the General Reserves like in 2015.

Our total budget for 2016 is $561,017. That’s a 2.71% increase over the $546,245 budget in 2015. Solid progress is being made to support our many ministries and programs, and care for our aging building.

We celebrate Mike Memmer’s retirement as our church Business Manager! Mike brought such strong service and organization to our church finances, and everything he did is very much appreciated. A BIG Thank You Mike!

Welcome also to Becky Paroda as our new Business Manager. Becky grew up in our church (daughter of Kim and Scott Campbell) and we look forward to the many gifts and talents that Becky brings to us.

We are so grateful to our Church Family for their financial support. It really does change lives, and helps spread the Good News of Jesus Christ. Our pledges and gifts also change our own lives, forever.

God owns everything. Hallelujah! And we honor God every time we return to him his gifts to us, by making our pledges and offerings.

When we join The United Methodist Church, we vow to support it with our prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness. But sometimes, our good intentions get lost in the day-to-day hustle and bustle of life. As a church, how are we doing with our promises? Can you help fill in the blanks?

PRAYERS

Learning to pray is like learning to ride a bicycle. What we can learn from a book or class is not enough. Proficiency comes through practice.

Additionally, because prayer is a form of communication, there is no one-size-fits-all technique. Each of us needs to find our unique style.

Spending a day or season invigorating your prayer life is time well spent. Experiment with some new-to-you ways of praying. You might be surprised to find what works best for you.

Do you know that Brecksville United Methodist Church has an active e-mail Prayer Chain? To be added to the e-mail list, or to submit a prayer request, please contact Elrowan33@aol.com.

GIFTS

If you have made a pledge or a contribution, you will receive a giving statement (either electronically or on the other side of this page with your mailed Good Word) which outlines your gifts to date this year. If you need additional information, or if you have not received your statement, please contact the church office.

This table outlines the offering received each Sunday since the last publication of the Good Word.

SERVICE

Some ways you can be of service to others this month (look for details in this issue of The Good Word!)

- Sign up for the Habitat for Humanity Apostles Build project. You can choose to work one day, to provide lunch for a work team, or to take pictures of the project. We also need a lot of prayers!
- Volunteer to make dinner for the First Sunday Youth Dinner. There are only two remaining this season!
- Donate to our canned food drive for Brookside, or undergarments for the West Side Sisterhood.
- Donate your old glasses to the UMW. They’ll be recycled for someone in need.
- Eat at Creekside on April 12 for the UMW Mission fund.

Thank you! Other opportunities are listed on the church website!

The people of The United Methodist Church are putting our faith in action by making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, which is our church’s mission. Through the power of our connection, we are making a positive difference in more than 125 countries.

We’ve set a goal of bringing 300 people together for worship on Sunday mornings. Can we keep it up? We can, if you are making meaningful worship a priority in your life!
On Easter, many United Methodists sing, “Every day to us is Easter, with its resurrection song.” These words open the last verse of “Easter People Raise Your Voices” (United Methodist Hymnal #304) penned by United Methodist pastor the Rev. William M. James. The hymn reminds us that we celebrate renewal every day.

Out of floodwaters

In late August 2005, Hurricane Katrina and the resultant flooding displaced hundreds of thousands of people in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. The Rev. Darryl Tate was one of them.

“I had lost our church by floodwaters, and our home,” Tate reports. At the height of the flooding, St. Luke’s United Methodist Church in New Orleans, Louisiana, had 10-12 feet of water in it. “I lost my stuff, but the storm was not going to define Darryl Tate,” he recalls, “I was going to overcome.”

Bishop William W. Hutchinson soon asked Tate to organize The United Methodist Church’s disaster relief ministry in Louisiana. Tate served as director of the Louisiana Conference Storm Recovery Center until 2012, and continues as the Conference Volunteer Coordinator for Disaster Response today.

Tate saw many examples of renewal in his work. “Our organization helped 125,000 households,” in response to “four hurricanes, seven tornadoes, three floods, and one environmental crisis,” he reports.

He remembers a unique request from a man whose home the Storm Recovery Center was ready to rebuild.

“I want a house only 1,000 square feet,” he said. The case manager assured him that though guidelines would not allow them to build more than he had before, they could rebuild the 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home the storm destroyed.

“No,” the man replied. “I only want a house that is 1,000 square feet. I live alone. I don’t need a home that big anymore. Give it to somebody else.”

An elderly couple from a horse farm in Pecan Island were forced to live in a horse trailer when floodwaters came to their home. During the home blessing service the Storm Recovery Center held for the family after rebuilding their home, the woman excitedly showed Tate her new refrigerator.

“I can put my glass in the door and I’ll get water and ice. Isn’t it amazing?” she said. “I am so blessed.”

A new home, a new refrigerator, a new blessing that comes after a storm. Every day can be Easter.

Out of oppression

In 1940, when Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia became part of the Soviet Union, there were 46 Methodist congregations in the region (we didn’t become United Methodists until 1968). When Estonia gained independence in 1991, there were only 17 left. God, however, was working toward revival.

“I accepted Jesus Christ into my heart in 1991,” says the Rev. Sergei Sutskov, “It was a time of great spiritual awakening in Estonia. At this time, Estonia seceded from the Soviet Union.”

Three years later, Sutskov moved to nearby Kohtla-Järve to start Galvary United Methodist Church.

Sutskov, who was a member of the first graduating class of the Baltic Methodist Theological Seminary founded by The United Methodist Church, continues to pastor this growing congregation today.

In the early days of Galvary United Methodist Church, their biggest challenge was “the lack of its own building for the community,” Sutskov says. In 2007, the congregation moved into a place with sufficient space for worship, Sunday school, and other activities.

Reflecting on the story of his faith journey and the church he serves, Sutskov says, “God responded to the spiritual hunger of people.” Every day can be Easter.

We are Easter people

As Easter people, we know that even in the tragedies of life, God is at work bringing renewal. Some of those renewals we get to experience: rebuilt homes, national revival, and new church buildings. Others, like the death of a loved one, we wait to celebrate in the Kingdom of God to come.

As Christians, we experience resurrection every day and are called to share it in worship and work. Every day can be Easter, all year long.
