Self-discovery.
Personal growth.
Risk taking.
Following Jesus.

Series starts Sunday, March 5th. Are you ready?

This year’s all-church Lenten study will parallel Pastor Clark’s sermon series, EXPOSED. Are you ready to tear away pretense and get honest about what holds you back from following God's call on your life? Each Sunday, during the 10 o’clock education hour, we will examine Scripture and use a combination of large-group and small-group discussion to uncover God's heart for us and our heart for the world.

March 5
Psalm 32
Matthew 4:1-11
A Hiding Place - What holds you back in your spiritual growth? Are you hiding behind old habits or excuses? This week, we will strip back some of our fears and explore the freedom that comes with exposing our personal truth.

March 12
Psalm 121
John 3:1-17
Life & Death - What does it mean to fully commit to being a disciple of Jesus Christ? Jesus promises us abundant life when we choose to become a disciple. Are you ready to live fully into that call and fully live?

March 19
Psalm 95
John 4:5-42
No Secrets - What does it mean to be authentic with one another and truly support each other in community? How can we, as a community of faith, provide a safe environment for growing together as followers of Jesus?

March 26
Psalm 23
John 9:1-41
To See or Not to See - We know that God has placed a call on our lives, and we know that call will take us to places we don't expect. Are you ready to open your eyes to the places God is calling you to go?

April 2
Psalm 130
John 11:1-45
Set Free - What does it look like to be truly empowered for ministry? How can we come together, gear up, and get to work as followers of Jesus, right here at BUMC?

April 9
Palm Sunday
The Call to Justice - In this final week, we will take a look at the call to justice that brought Jesus into Jerusalem on the back of a humble donkey. Understanding that we answer the same call, what will discover together what that looks like in our own lives and in our life as a community.
Following Entails Journeying
Rev. Clark Stein, Senior Pastor

Calling the crowd to join his disciples, he said, “Anyone who intends to come with me has to let me lead. You’re not in the driver’s seat; I am. Don’t run from suffering; embrace it. Follow me and I’ll show you how…”  Read Mark 8:34-38

Winter drags on. I am rather tired of winter. I’m not too good at cold weather, grey skies, biting winds, snow shoveling, waiting for the car to warm, bundling up, Kleenex, coughs and the like. It is so easy for me to want to rush into spring, warmer weather, bluer skies, gentler winds, cleansing rains, warm sun, outward signs of life. But today, after a blanket of snow, I looked out of the window and was taken by the beauty of it. What had been a sloppy mess was covered in a blanket of white, hiding all that the spring melt will eventually reveal. It was a good reminder for me to simply enjoy every moment for what it is, not always what we might wish it to be.

As we begin our Lenten journeys, I also hear reminders encouraging us not to rush into Easter. Jesus asked all of his listeners to consider the costs of discipleship. It must have given the original listeners as much pause as it gives us today to hear the words, “If anyone would come after me, let them deny themselves, take up their cross and follow me.” We tend to look just at the goal, and put aside all of the moments in between the beginning and the ultimate triumph in the end. Following entails journeying. Let us not lose sight of all the encounters brought our way. Jesus led a life of encounters. It is the stories of those encounters that slowly exposed who he was to all who met him on the way.

Just as the slowly melting snow will expose the birth of new life to the creation that so majestically surrounds us, I pray your Lenten pilgrimage will slowly reveal Jesus to you once again. For I think you will find that at Easter, when the snow melts and we notice that new life has been about its business unobserved, you will find new life present for you as well. Life is full of pleasant surprises. I even find that I like the appearance of snow today.

Keeping the faith,

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME BEGINS
SUNDAY, MARCH 12
It’s time to spring forward! Set your clocks ahead one hour.
As people of faith, we find God’s presence in those who have been blessings to us. At our weekly staff meetings this month, we lifted up the following people in prayer, thanking God for them and the way they touch the lives of others. People like Pat Frank, who so willingly shares her time and talents with the residents of Chippewa Place. Pat accompanies their singing at the ecumenical chapel services there. With Paul Calovini’s help, you and many others are able to hear our services every Sunday. Do you know that Paul records each sermon, which is then posted on our website (www.brecksvilleumc.com)? Working women of the church have the opportunity to be involved in the service and fellowship of United Methodist Women with Evening Circle. Without Lynn Hobzek, this wonderful group would not be meeting. We’re so thankful for Lynn and for all of the ways that this group has found to reach out into our community. (Join them this month to help make soup for shut ins!) We are so thankful for each of you, named and unnamed!

Marjorie Novak, who joined Brecksville United Methodist Church on October 20, 1968, died on February 19. She was 91 years old. Marjorie will be dearly missed by her daughter, Judy. A celebration of her life was held at Nosek-McCreery Funeral Home on Friday, February 24.

A Corner for Outreach & Development

We have been busy with Outreach activities in February. On February 18, a group visited Habitat for Humanity for a time of information gathering and vision casting. Later the same evening, a group attended "That's Amore," a benefit evening at Nehemiah Mission at which we learned more about the ministry being done in Cleveland neighborhoods.

On Saturday, March 11, our Outreach team will visit Ohio Guidestone and learn about ways our church can become a partner to individuals in our community dealing with unemployment, drug addiction and displacement.

March Main Event:
On Sunday, March 26, you are invited to a special event following worship! This summer, an intergenerational team will travel to Grand Bassa, Liberia to provide 2 weeks of Vacation Bible School (VBS) and core educational support for students at the J. F. Yancy School. Children in Kindergarten through ninth grade will receive a simple uniform (shorts and t-shirt), a daily meal, activities and classes in core subject areas, led by our team as well as graduates of the school itself. SOUP FOR AFRICA is an opportunity for you to partner with our team and show your support to an individual student.

Join us for a FREE soup lunch following Sunday school or 11:15 worship. For a suggested donation of $10, you can decorate a placement that will be laminated and will go to Liberia with our team. During our two weeks of VBS and summer school, a child will have the opportunity to use your placemat each day and know that an individual or family at Brecksville United Methodist Church is praying for them! Soup will be served from 11:15 am until 1:00 pm. Join us following Sunday school or 11:15 worship as your schedule permits. Thank you for partnership with us in transforming young lives in Liberia!

- Joy Parker, Director of Outreach

Let’s Move Some Bikes!
A core team of bike mechanics, including Wally Kudlaty, Jinho Lee, Harry Kobena and Ben McNair, have been making repairs to bikes this winter and Jenny Gee has been delivering them to area agencies. As the weather warms, we would love to get more of these bikes out into the community. If you know of anyone who may be able to help repair bikes, please contact Jenny Gee, 440-526-8938 ext 230 or education@brecksvilleumc.com

Volunteer with the Greater Cleveland Food Bank March 11

Serve the Pearl Road Dinner March 26
On Sunday, March 26, our church will be providing the main course, Lasagna, for hungry folks at Pearl Road UMC. Want to help? Sign up on Sunday in the Parlor, or call the office. Pearl Road United Methodist Church provides a free hot meal to anyone in need on the last two Sundays of every month (and on the second Thursday of every month!). We work in conjunction with other churches to help provide that meal.

Soap for Hope!

Do you know that SNAP benefits can only be used for food and for plants and seeds to grow food? This means that soaps and household cleaners are a great need for our brothers and sisters served by Brookside Food Center. This month, we’re focusing our collection on bar soap, body wash and household cleaners. Moved to help? Please bring donations to the bin in the coatroom by Thursday, March 16.

10-12th grade Lenten Study on Social Justice
"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has."
- Margaret Mead

During the season of Lent, a group of students will meet Wednesdays at 5 pm to discuss current events and social justice through timely articles and cinema. As Christ-followers, how do we respond to injustices in the world? If you are a student looking for space to explore this question and more, sign up for this study. There will be a clipboard in the Parlor on Sunday or simply contact Dana by March 5. (youth@brecksvilleumc.com or 440-526-8938 ext. 237.) This study begins on March 8 and is free, but pre-registration is required!

Craft Beer & Conversation: Immigration/Refugees
Sunday, March 5 from 4:00 pm - 7:00 pm
The Bourbon Street Barrel Room
2393 Professor Avenue, Cleveland

Joy Parker says, “I’m really excited about this opportunity to engage in conversation on these important issues with brothers and sisters in the wider community. Would you like to join me? I have 5 spots available!”

The purpose of the event is for people to have a chance to engage in civil dialogue about topics we are sometimes afraid to discuss, in a safe, respectful, moderated space. This is an opportunity to listen to different opinions and share your own story too.

You do not need to be well informed or an "expert" to attend, but you must be willing to listen and share. The goal is not to change opinions. This event will focus on conversation surrounding immigration and refugees.

RSVP to outreach@brecksvilleumc.com.

Welcoming all of God’s children.

Brecksville United Methodist Church is called to the ministry of reconciliation. We embrace diversity as a gift. We celebrate our human family’s diversity of sexual orientation, gender identity, race, ethnicity, age, faith history, economic status, marital status, physical and mental ability, and education. We affirm that all people are created in the image of God and as beloved children of God, all are worthy of God’s love and grace. We welcome the full inclusion of all people in the life and ministries of Brecksville United Methodist Church as we journey toward reconciliation through Christ.

This reflective service invites you to humble yourself and be honest about areas in which you have fallen short in the past year. The imposition of ashes—having the sign of the cross gently placed on your hand or forehead—is a powerful and important practice, and it prepares you to walk with Jesus all the way to the cross and into new life. You are warmly invited to participate in this time-honored and meaningful tradition!
Your gift reaches people in more than 80 countries, including the United States.

More than 10 years ago, Hurricane Katrina made landfall on the coasts of Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas, displacing thousands of families and killing more than 1,800 loved ones.

UMCOR was on the ground and operational within 24 hours of Hurricane Katrina’s devastating arrival.

According to the Rev. John C. Moore, who was on the ground helping, “because of the UMCOR Sunday offering, UMCOR was able to get us funds to measure the damage.”

UMCOR came alongside people like Moore and everyone else in the annual conferences to guide the response effort.

From cleanup to rebuilding efforts, UMCOR was there. Plus, they set up a cadre of counselors for the youth who had survived the trauma.

Today, UMCOR is still serving there. The legacy of UMCOR’s efforts in the communities is unmistakable. A decade later, people are still moved by UMCOR’s compassionate response.

UMCOR does incredible work and does not receive apportioned funds. Your gift on UMCOR Sunday covers many of the operating costs for UMCOR.

This means that any donations that come in during disaster relief can be 100% contributed to the disaster.

Your generous gift today matters.
