Reverend Clark Stein has been appointed to serve the Hudson United Methodist Church in the Canal District effective July 1, 2019. Reverend Stein will continue to serve as our pastor in Brecksville until June 30.

In the United Methodist Church ordained pastors freely agree to serve where they may be appointed by the Bishop and Cabinet. All clergy appointments are made based upon the pastor’s gifts, experience, skills and abilities and the circumstances and leadership needs of each local church.

Pastor Clark and Kathy came to us 9 years ago. He has been a caring and steady force throughout that time. He has been an excellent teacher, worship leader, and preacher. He has been with us in moments of celebration and need. He has led us in worship, helped us be more open to diversity, and led us to become more engaged in our community. He has helped us learn what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ. We wish him well and are grateful for the years we have shared.

Our District Superintendent, Dr. Steve Bailey and our Bishop, Tracy Malone, have announced that our next pastoral leader will be Reverend Heidi Welch. The Staff Parish Relations Committee met with Reverend Welch and her family and feel this is a very good match. We look forward to her leadership in the coming years.

A native of Conneaut, Ohio, Rev. Welch is completing a four year appointment as the Associate Pastor at the Medina United Methodist Church. She also served two small congregations in the Mid-Ohio District while in seminar at the Methodist Theological School of Ohio. Her undergraduate degree is from Youngstown State University with a B.A in Religious Studies. She is excited about coming to serve our church and is very happy to serve in an open, affirming, and reconciling congregation.

Reverend Welch brings many skills and abilities as she comes to lead our congregation. She excels at creating a shared vision of ministry that engages the congregational leaders, the church staff, and the members and friends of the congregation. She is highly relational and enjoys developing strong relationships with those she serves. She loves preaching, teaching, and making community connections. She relates well with people of all ages and she really enjoys children and youth. She is committed to leading a church that extends God’s love to all people and that plays a relevant role in the life of the community.

Her husband Rasul (Rus) Welch is a professional chef currently working at Spice Kitchen in Gordon Square, where he is responsible for the Catering activates of the restaurant. He has also worked as a professional photographer in the food industry. The Welch’s have two children – Joseph is 8 years old and Corrie just turned 5.

In the months to come, the Staff Parish Relations, Trustees, and Reverend Stein will be working with Reverend Welch to insure a smooth and productive transition time. -Submitted by Staff Parish Relations Committee

Sacred Empty Spaces
Rev. Clark Stein, Senior Pastor
“He is not here, but has risen.”
Luke 24:6a

As I sit down to write this article, it is officially spring. I am writing on the first day of spring, and the sun is shining on the landscape outside my window, and birds are chirping over the sounds of traffic and the constant beep beep beep of the heavy machinery building a new bank across the street. It seems to be an Easter like day, as new beginnings surround me from the outside in…

There was a Sunday School teacher who had just finished telling her third graders about how Jesus was crucified and placed in a tomb with a great stone sealing the only way in or out. Then, wanting to share the excitement of the resurrection, and the surprise of Easter morning, she asked, “And what do you think were Jesus’ first words when he came bursting out of that tomb alive?”

A hand shot up in the air from the rear of the classroom. It belonged to a most excited little girl. Leaping out of her chair she shouted excitedly, “I know, I know, I know.” “Good.” Said the teacher, “tell us.”

Extending her arms high in the air she sang out, “Ta-da!”

I have shared with many of you the irony of the notion that we hold empty spaces to be very sacred. Be they empty chairs around our tables that used to hold grandparents, or parents, or children long since grown up and moved on, or dear friends or spouses. Memorials often work the same way, erected in now empty spaces that remind us that significant people and things occupied this space at one time. The empty tomb is like that. We know that it was once occupied, but its emptiness speaks volumes to us that we can’t even adequately relate to anything we might describe.

I suggest to you that all of these things combine to give you “Ta-da!” moments on every turn. I pray that as you make your way through this Easter time of new life, new beginnings, new seasons, the empty spaces, and the spaces that are filled with new people and meaning for you, set off this simple “Ta-da” in your brains and hearts. I feel it must be one of God’s sacred words, uttered every time someone “gets it” and journeys towards home…

Fifth Sunday Music
March 31. We will be joined in worship by clarinetist, Emilio Rosario. A gifted musician, Emilio is pursuing his master’s degree at Cleveland State. The Chancel Choir will also perform at both services! This is the first in a series of 5th Sunday Musical guests in 2019.
Join us for this quiet and reflective time of worship in the church sanctuary. The word “Tenebrae” means darkness. In this service, eight candles, symbolize the flight and denial of disciples and friends after the crucifixion. A ninth candle, symbolizing Christ, remains lighted throughout the service. In that light we find forgiveness and fellowship in communion with our Lord. This is a powerful worship experience.

Take some time for prayer and reflection with the prayer labyrinth, a self-guided prayer tool in the Chapel (on the main floor of the church building) and available for use anytime the church building is open through Lent.

Many people find that the simple movement of walking the labyrinth’s curving paths allows their minds to become more peaceful and open to the Spirit.

Labyrinths and mazes are sometimes confused; but they are quite different from each other. A maze is a puzzle to be solved with its twists, turns, and blind alleys. It is a left brain task that requires logical, sequential, analytical thinking to find the correct path. A labyrinth has only one circuitous path—to the center and out again. A labyrinth is a right brain task. It involves intuition, creativity, and imagery. An active mind is needed to solve the puzzle of a maze. With a labyrinth there is only one choice to be made: to enter or not. A more passive, receptive mindset is needed. The choice is whether or not to walk a spiritual path.

Music, special lighting, and devotional tools are all available for use on your walk. If you would like more information, please contact Jenny Gee, Director of Christian Education at church!

April 21: Gather with friends and neighbors at the gazebo on Brecksville Square for worship, Scripture readings and a short message. Dress casually and for the weather. Bring a blanket, a lawn chair and a friend and join us to watch the sunrise as we celebrate the resurrected Lord.

April 21: Join us for triumphant worship celebrating the resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! (There will be no education hour offerings on Easter Sunday.) He is risen! He is risen indeed!

The University of Minnesota’s Eco-Palms program ensures that the palm leaves we use on Palm Sunday were harvested in an environmentally sensitive manner by workers getting paid a fair price. As you celebrate Palm Sunday, say a prayer of thanks for those who harvested our palms, for their families, for their communities, and for those who minister to them.

“Would your church be willing to take over a wonderful ministry?” The woman on the other end of the telephone line explained that for years she had been going to the turnpike stations (off of Edgerton and Towpath Roads) every Saturday morning to pick up unsold baked goods to deliver to a soup kitchen downtown. She and her brother used to do this together, but he had died and she was finding the bags too heavy to handle on her own. Would we be willing to take over?

WE ARE and we currently have 8-10 teams committed to taking turns weekly gathering the baked goods and delivering these pastries, bread, rolls and bagels to places like the Parma Height Food Pantry, which provides food to nearly 300 families and St. Augustine and St. Herman’s which each serve thousands of meals every week. This food will feed hungry families.

Some of the pastries are being set aside to replace the goodies coffee hour volunteers have been purchasing or baking. Monetary donations made during coffee hour will go directly to the Hunger Fund. In the first two weeks, we generated over $80! That is amazing. Thank You!

During coffee hour as you enjoy a muffin, bear claw, cookie, etc. think about the many people we are touching through our small monetary donations as well how many we will help with approximately five very large plastic bags filled with baked goods we take to a pantry or hunger center.

Special thanks to those who have signed up to be a part of this new ministry: Mary & Craig Kotnik, Beth Smith, Alan & Debbi Schuefler, John & Carole Brachna, Jeff & Sue Hastings, George & Jenny Gee, Tim & Leslie Miller, Brent Barnum and Cara Santora. FESTIVAL OF GOD’S CREATION
SUNDAY, APRIL 28
A relationship with God’s creation and a ministry of caring for and healing the earth are integral to what it means to be a United Methodist. The following is an excerpt from the Social Principles: The Natural World: "All creation is the Lord’s, and we are responsible for the ways in which we use and abuse it. Water, air, soil, minerals, energy resources, plants, animal life, and space are to be valued and conserved because they are God’s creation and not solely because they are useful to human beings. God has granted us stewardship of creation. We should meet these stewardship duties through acts of loving care and respect."

“My sincere appreciation and thanks for all the prayers, visits, cards and thoughts that have been so supportive for my recent surgery and its long recovery. I believe I am doing well and will see the surgeon in a couple weeks to advance the mobility of my shoulder. It was so good to see all the wonderful people yesterday at BUMC service. You all are very important to me and I am comfortable to be part of this church. Fondly, Kendall Lancaster”

On Sunday, March 24, we celebrated the baptism of Nathan Ryan Gardner, son of Emily and David. (Nathan’s brother, Matthew, was baptized here in 2016.) Baptism is the beginning of a lifelong journey of faith. We celebrate that Nathan’s journey begins in the nurturing community of our church, and pray that he learns what it means that God loves him here.

“I and my family wanted to thank all of you who prayed for my family, sent beautiful cards, called and were so helpful in dealing with the loss of two of my brothers. It was so unexpected but I truly believe your prayers gave me the strength I needed. Thank you and God bless you. Shelly Meek”

As people of faith, we find God’s presence in those who have been blessings to us. Our “Make and Give a Birdhouse” Sunday was made possible by Tony Petro sharing his wonderful gifts. Did you know that he milled all of the wood, cut out all the pieces, and taught more than 60 people how to make a birdhouse? That’s amazing. We are so blessed to have people like Mary & Craig Kotnik taking seeds of ideas, like our new bread ministry, and turning them into reality. With their guidance, more people are being fed each week in our communities. Dana put out a last minute call for help with Music with a Mission, and Amy Piorkowski cheerfully answered. The whole event was a giant success because of the hard work of our church youth, volunteers, and lots of talented performers. Let’s all lift up a prayer of thanks for the ways that lives will be changed this summer with the money we raised at the event! Recently, two young people shared their musical gifts in worship—Sean Brown played the piano for the Chapel Service at Chippewa Place and Hannah Botzman helped lead singing in worship. We’re thankful for both of you! This list could go on and on this month! What joy we share in service!

Prayer Labyrinth in the Chapel

Enrich your prayer life with the labyrinth. Through Holy Saturday, April 20, our Prayer Labyrinth will be set up in the Chapel anytime that the church is open. Resources will be available for your self guided walk!

High School Homework Zone/Middle School Youth Group, etc.
Open Doors.
Welcoming all of God's children.

Brecksville United Methodist Church is called to the ministry of reconciliation. We embrace diversity as a gift. We celebrate our human family’s diversity of sexual orientation, gender identity, race, ethnicity, age, faith history, economic status, marital status, physical and mental ability, and education. We affirm that all people are created in the image of God and as beloved children of God, all are worthy of God's love and grace. We welcome the full inclusion of all people in the life and ministries of Brecksville United Methodist Church as we journey toward reconciliation through Christ.
Go quickly to the city’s streets. The busy ones and the side streets, and bring the poor, crippled, blind, and lame...Go to the highways and back alleys and urge people to come in so that my house will be filled.
- Luke 14: 218, 23

BECOMING AN ACCESSIBLE, INCLUSIVE CONGREGATION WHERE ALL BELONG.

People affected by disability desire to attend church, but do at much lower rate because of barriers that exist.

“No amount of smiling at a flight of stairs has ever made it turn into a ramp. Never. Smiling at a television screen isn’t going to make closed captions appear for people who are deaf. No amount of standing in the middle of a bookshop and radiating a positive attitude is going to turn all those books into braille. It’s just not going to happen.” - Writer, comedian and activist, Stella Young.

We all like to think that God’s house is a space that is open and welcoming for all. Do we do a good job of thinking about our spaces and programs from the perspective of those who are differently abled? How can we do better?

This was the theme of a day long workshop sponsored by East Ohio CEF: Christians Engaged in Faith Formation, and the Spiritual Formation & Christian Education Committee of the East Ohio Conference on March 14.

After a keynote address, attendees chose from the following workshops:

- Disability Awareness 101: Introduction to disability and disability ministry with hands on experiences with Ryan Wolfe, President of Ability Ministry.
- Awareness to Action: Supporting Individuals With Special Needs in All Environments with Dr. Katie Krammer, Assoc. Professor at Lake Erie College.
- Invisible Disabilities: Not seeing and believing, Chad Bogdewic, Senior Pastor of First United Methodist Church in Sharpsville, PA involved in disability ministry in the Western Pennsylvania Conference of the UMC.
- Autism Basics: communication and Building Success with Jocelyn Geib, PhD, CC/SLP, KidsLink
- Mental Health and the Church, Rev. Dr. Bev Hall, Chair, East Ohio Committee on Disability Concerns.

Our director of Education, Jenny Gee, and our office manager, Melanie Smith, attended the conference and learned that there are little and big things that churches can do to become more welcoming and inclusive to people of all abilities - and that few churches do them.

Ministry to those with disability is a real need for people in this community – families often feel isolated. The workshop closed with a video of a family who attend Church of the Resurrection in Solon. They told us about their Be-Attitudes Service, a worship service for people with special needs which the church offers on the second Sunday of every month from September to May at 12:45 pm followed by a social in the Parish Hall. The service has been a real blessing for them, and they have found it a place where they feel accepted and spiritually fed. The mother said, “The service will never go the way you want it to go, but it will go the way God wants it to go.”

Some other thoughts and comments that stood out:

- One presenter said “When you’ve met one person with autism, you’ve met one person with autism.” Everyone is different.
- Diaper changing stations are great, but there are almost always only for infants. Consider providing a changing area for bigger kids.
- “You can become bitter, or you can become better.”

We are looking forward to developing a more active disability ministry at Brecksville UMC. Would you like to get involved? Do you have ideas? Needs? Contact Jenny Gee, education@brecksvilleumc.com or call 440-526-8938 ext. 230.

Easter Flowers and Sensory Sensitivity

Spring flowers are reminders of new life and resurrection, and it’s fitting that a long held tradition in Christian churches is to fill our sanctuaries with lilies, daffodils, tulips and azaleas at Eastertime.

But some are sensitive to the fragrance of some of these flowers. To help make our church a more welcoming place for all, we have selected the least fragrant flowers for Easter Sunday (no more hyacinths!) and we remove the stamens from all of our lilies to reduce their smell.

It’s a small thing that we can make God’s house a more hospitable place for all of God’s children!
